The Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, in Christ you have revealed your glory among the nations: Preserve the works of your mercy, that your Church throughout the world may persevere with steadfast faith in the confession of your Name; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Job 38:1-7

The LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind: "Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge? Gird up your loins like a man, I will question you, and you shall declare to me. "Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding. Who determined its measurements—surely you know! Or who stretched the line upon it? On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone when the morning stars sang together and all the heavenly beings shouted for joy? The Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD

Psalm 104:1-9, 25, 37b Benedic, anima mea

1 Bless the LORD, O my soul; *

O LORD my God, how excellent is your greatness!
you are clothed with majesty and splendor.

2 You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak *
and spread out the heavens like a curtain.

3 You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above; *
you make the clouds your chariot;
you ride on the wings of the wind.

4 You make the winds your messengers *
and flames of fire your servants.

5 You have set the earth upon its foundations, *
so that it never shall move at any time.

6 You covered it with the Deep as with a mantle; *
the waters stood higher than the mountains.

7 At your rebuke they fled; *
at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.

8 They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath, *
to the places you had appointed for them.

9 You set the limits that they should not pass; *
they shall not again cover the earth.

25 O LORD, how manifold are your works! *
in wisdom you have made them all;
the earth is full of your creatures.

37b Hallelujah!

The Epistle: Hebrews 5:1-10

Every high priest chosen from among mortals is put in charge of things pertaining to God on their behalf, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal gently with the ignorant and wayward, since he himself is subject to weakness; and because of this he must offer sacrifice for his own sins as well as for those of the people. And one does not presume to take this honor, but takes it only when called by God, just as Aaron was. So also Christ did not glorify himself in becoming a high priest, but was appointed by the one who said to him, "You are my Son, today I have begotten you"; as he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, according to the order of Melchizedek." In the days of his flesh, Jesus offered up prayers and supplications, with loud cries and tears, to the one who was able to save him from death, and he was heard because of his reverent submission. Although he was a Son, he learned obedience through what he suffered; and having been made perfect, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him, having been designated by God a high priest according to the order of Melchizedek.

The Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD

+The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark (10:35-45)

ALL: GLORY TO YOU, LORD CHRIST

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came forward to Jesus and said to him, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you." And he said to them, "What is it you want me to do for you?" And they said to him, "Grant us to sit, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory." But Jesus said to them, "You do not know what you are asking. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, or be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?" They replied, "We are able." Then Jesus said to them, "The cup that I drink you will drink; and with the baptism with which I am baptized, you will be baptized; but to sit at my right hand or at my left is not mine to grant, but it is for those for whom it has been prepared." When the ten heard this, they began to be angry with James and John. So Jesus called them and said to them, "You know that among the Gentiles those whom they recognize as their rulers lord it over them, and their great ones are tyrants over them. But it is not so among you; but whoever wishes to become great among you must be your servant, and whoever wishes to be first among you must be slave of all. For the Son of Man came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many." The Gospel of the Lord. ALL: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD CHRIST

Seeking Power or Seeking Community!

A skilled psychologist once taught that human activity flows from the will to power and the will to community. The key to a healthy psychology lies in balancing the two. In today's gospel, James and John demonstrate excessive will to power by demanding Jesus give them whatever they ask and requesting special seats of honor. Jesus corrects their seeking power and calls for their psychological balance by pointing out the cost of true greatness: service. We are also his disciples, but do we seek to overpower? Place yourself in the presence of Jesus and her/him who has hurt you the deepest. Listen to his counsel: "Whoever wishes to be great among you, will become the servant of all". What's your response to Jesus?

On behalf of the Gillian Grey Community Labyrinth Ministry we want to thank all of those who devoted their time, talent, and resources to making the labyrinth possible. We had over thirty parishioners volunteer their time and efforts, and more than a handful pulling double and triple shifts in order to complete the work. The labyrinth team of Robert Ferre, his wife Linda and partner Chuck Hunner were very impressed with the number of volunteers that came out and especially their work ethic. We all were extremely thankful for those of you who supplied more than enough food, as is our tradition, to help sustain us. Thank you, thank you, thank you and God's grace, love, and peace. Jerry Mawhinney.

UTO Corner 2018: Do you want to learn more about the UTO Ministry? Please go to <https://unitedthankoffering.com> and see the archive of grants awarded over the years since 1883 - 2017. See the many ways your donations have blessed others around the world. Thank you.

Spiritual Thought for the week: "One of the principal rules of religion is, to lose no occasion of serving God. And, since he is invisible to our eyes, we are to serve him in our neighbor; which he receives as if done to himself in person, standing visibly before us." -John Wesley
