The Collect

O Lord, you have taught us that without love whatever we do is worth nothing: Send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts your greatest gift, which is love, the true bond of peace and of all virtue, without which whoever lives is accounted dead before you. Grant this for the sake of your only Son Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The First Lesson: Leviticus 19:1-2,9-18

The LORD spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to all the congregation of the people of Israel and say to them: You shall be holy, for I the LORD your God am holy. When you reap the harvest of your land, you shall not reap to the very edges of your field, or gather the gleanings of your harvest. You shall not strip your vineyard bare, or gather the fallen grapes of your vineyard; you shall leave them for the poor and the alien: I am the LORD your God. You shall not steal; you shall not deal falsely; and you shall not lie to one another. And you shall not swear falsely by my name, profaning the name of your God: I am the LORD. You shall not defraud your neighbor; you shall not steal; and you shall not keep for yourself the wages of a laborer until morning. You shall not revile the deaf or put a stumbling block before the blind; you shall fear your God: I am the LORD. You shall not render an unjust judgment; you shall not be partial to the poor or defer to the great: with justice you shall judge your neighbor. You shall not go around as a slanderer among your people, and you shall not profit by the blood of your neighbor: I am the LORD. You shall not hate in your heart anyone of your kin; you shall reprove your neighbor, or you will incur guilt yourself. You shall not take vengeance or bear a grudge against any of your people, but you shall love your neighbor as yourself: I am the LORD. The Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD

Psalm 119:33-40 Legem pone

33 Teach me, O LORD, the way of your statutes, *and I shall keep it to the end.
34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law; *I shall keep it with all my heart.
35 Make me go in the path of your commandments, *for that is my desire.
36 Incline my heart to your decrees *and not to unjust gain.
37 Turn my eyes from watching what is worthless; *give me life in your ways.
38 Fulfill your promise to your servant, *which you make to those who fear you.
39 Turn away the reproach which I dread, *because your judgments are good.
40 Behold, I long for your commandments; *in your righteousness preserve my life.

The Epistle: 1 Corinthians 3:10-11,16-23

According to the grace of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and someone else is building on it. Each builder must choose with care how to build on it. For no one can lay any foundation other than the one that has been laid; that foundation is Jesus Christ. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person. For God's temple is holy, and you are that temple. Do not deceive yourselves. If you think that you are wise in this age, you should become fools so that you may become wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their craftiness," and again, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." So let no one boast. The Word of the Lord. THANKS BE TO GOD

+The Holy Gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew (5:38-48)

All: GLORY TO YOU, LORD CHRIST

Jesus said, "You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.' But I say to you, Do not resist an evildoer. But if anyone strikes you on the right cheek, turn the other also; and if anyone wants to sue you and take your coat, give your cloak as well; and if anyone forces you to go one mile, go also the second mile. Give to everyone who begs from you, and do not refuse anyone who wants to borrow from you. "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect."

The Gospel of the Lord. All: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD CHRIST

YOU LIVE ON THE MOUNT OF TRANSFIGURATION

Jesus took his 3 close friends "up the mountain". In the Scriptures, that phrase means, in context, an encounter with God. Both Moses (Exodus 19:20) and Elijah (1Kings 18:19) became famous for going "up the mountain". In today's gospel, Jesus, himself, goes "up the mountain" to meet Moses and Elijah who symbolize the law and the prophets. But God addresses only Jesus, "This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased". Matthew pictures Jesus transformed into love which surpasses the law and the prophets. God concludes by exclaiming to them and to us, "Listen to him". Thus, by following him, we become spiritually transformed, by seeing him in every person we touch, and God will say of us, "This is my beloved child with whom I am well pleased".

COMING UP @ ST. BENEDICT'S

Ash Wednesday and Lent are near: Join us on Ash Wednesday, March 1st for a short 25 minute service of Morning Prayer at 7:00 a.m. with the imposition of ashes - 12:00 Noon Holy Eucharist (approx. 30 minutes) with the imposition of ashes and 7:00 p.m. Holy Eucharist with the imposition of ashes and followed by a Biblical Meditation on the Stations of the Cross. We realize that for many it is a busy work day, for this reason a variety of services will be offered. All are welcome!

Pledge envelopes for 2017 are on the table at the back of the church for those members who have completed and submitted pledge cards for 2017. If you give your offerings online, you do not need envelopes – and it saves the church money, too. However, we still do need completed pledge cards. 2016 Pledge Statements are in the narthex. Please pick yours up today to save the church postage costs.

The flowers on the Altar are given to the greater glory of God and in loving memory of Shirley M. Rodriguez on the first-year anniversary of her passing in March and also on her birthday in March from her daughter, Denise Rodriguez. May you have eternal rest forever, my angel.

Following the footsteps of Jesus: HOLY LAND 2017 – Father Albert is leading a pilgrimage to the Holy Land. It will be a truly spiritual "once-in-a-lifetime" experience and a unique opportunity to deepen your knowledge of the Bible and the homeland of Jesus. For more information, please contact Father Albert or the Church Office.

Join us every Wednesday at 7:30 PM, for our "all new" RECTOR'S FORUM... Father Albert is conducting Anglican/Episcopal Theological reflections and Q & A sessions. We are using the book "What Episcopalians Believe" by Fr. Sam Wells as our guide.

Adult Ed and Theological Reflection: Monday Community! As a community, we will enjoy discussing Jesus entering Jerusalem just as we also approach our holy city Monday at 7 PM in the chapel.

Sunday Scripture: Sunday Treasure! Join us in searching and discovering treasure in our Sunday readings in the chapel at 9:30 AM. You'll treasure it!

Faith in Music Ministry: Tuesdays 9:30 AM. We will be finishing Händel's Judas Maccabäus.

Without faith, without works, we too quickly become that man in the mirror staring at his face but then forgets the way he looks as soon as he turns away. (James 1:23-24) Christ came down from His throne to dwell among us not only for the forgiveness of our sins and our reconciliation with God the Father, but also to model for us what it is like to live as a Christian. Join us on Friday mornings at 9:30 am for Bible Study on the Book of James. The book of James is filled with practical wisdom for Christians, calling us to live out genuine faith through good works. If you have any questions call (954-530-0901)

Spaghetti Dinner, Movie Screening and raffle to support St. Benedict's UN delegate, Katie Gould on Saturday, March 4 at 7:00 pm. We will be screening Girl Rising and discussing the church's priorities for the upcoming UN Commission on the Status of Women. Each ticket will be entered into the raffle for the Director's VIP Tour of Jungle Island for four ($2800 value). Tickets on sale after service, suggested donation $15.
